

E-MAIL DESIGNER (m/f)

Westwing is a high-growth e-commerce business: Backed by well-known investors with over USD 100m in funding and growing rapidly, we are one of the leading Home & Living verticals in Europe on a mission to provide our millions of members with stylish furniture and home accessories from well-known brands they love.

To pursue our ambitious expansion strategy, we are looking for an E-Mail Designer (m/f). As E-mail Designer, you will be in charge of coding HTML e-mails in a creative manner and developing the perfect HTML code to display our E-mails 100% compliant with e-mail format standards to guarantee high deliverability and avoid SPAM issues.

Joining Westwing now is a great opportunity: We are a well-financed company with tremendous growth potential in our market and plenty of room for personal growth, professional development and high impact.

The successful candidate will:

- Have a web design background
- Have programming skills in e-mail creation for at least 2 years
- Be able to deliver and code HTML e-mails with maximum deliverability
- Have a great sense of E-mail templates and layouts, from a marketing perspective
- Have good project management skills
- Develop the feeling of the brand very fast and translate it into great e-mail templates
- Be fluent in English

We offer:

- An e-mail design position in an international company with a high growth path towards becoming a category leader in e-commerce
- Attractive compensation package
- Great international team atmosphere

Please forward in absolute confidence, a full curriculum vitae and covering letter to jobs@westwing.de. Location: Munich.